The Greatness Series

Objective

Through well crafted interactive presentations shareholders are equipped with tools to aid in their progression with references to Maslow's law and Erik Erikson's 8 Stages of Development.

Intentional Outcomes

Positive Self-Image

Strategic Thinking and Planning

Improved classroom attendance

Improved retention rates

Productive Outline

Greatness 101: 6 part personal development series considered to be the blueprint for being successful.

Art of Thinking addresses the importance of being a critical and strategic thinker.

Who are YOU? helps shareholders to develop a powerful self-image with reference to Maslow's Law.

Character shareholders interview themselves through a deep dive into who they are to their core.

Confidence explains the difference between self-confidence and conceit with references to Erik Erikson's 8 Stages of Development

Stress Management two part series helps to identify emotional triggers and teaches the difference between reacting and responding

Skill VS Will the importance of being skilled and having the mental fortitude to do the impossible

Goal Framing reasoning based outlooks reliant on sound tactical maneuvers for barriers focuses on helping shareholders to create short-term SMART goals to reach the long-term dream

Creating Energy empowers shareholders to take full responsibility of their effort, attitude and behavior

Effective Communication stresses the importance of body language in a professional environment

Will welcoming the endurance primarily illuminated by the truth not seen from perception

Mamba Mentality uses Kobe Bryant to showcase that mindset to go in for the self determined outcome

Perspective the do's and dont's of being a professional on social media

The Blind Grind addresses the work that must take place in private

Circle of Influence explains the impact of the company you keep around occupying your time

Greatness is a Lifestyle everything behind the scenes of what greatness "looks" like

The Inevitable of Success the good, the bad and the ugly of what will happen on your climb up the success ladder